PIVOT Values Ladder Sheet

You will need four copies of this page. If you are able to expand just this page to A3 on a photocopier it will give you more space. See the instructions for this laddering exercise in the Professional and Personal Values in Practice activity guide stages 3–7. Begin by writing the two labels of your chosen construct in the bottom box. Select the label that you value most and follow the instructions to undertake the reflective ladder dialogue.

1 Most valued

2 Please explain - why is this important to you?

3 Can you reflect upon this more and say why this is an important value to you?

4 And, again, can you say why this value is important to you?

5 If you want to, you can take the process through further stages.

Space for further reflections/explanations if needed …

… and the opposite?

This value is important to me because …

… and what is its opposite?

This label of the construct is important to me because …

… and what is its opposite?

This value is important to me because …

… and what is its opposite?

Created by Barry Cooper & Maggie Pickering and funded by the Practice-based Professional Learning Centre for Excellence in Teaching and Learning 2009 www.open.ac.uk/pbpl

These materials are licensed under a Creative Commons Attribution Share-Alike 3.0 License