Personal Constructs PIVOT Stage 1

Element Cards, Numbers Card and Question card

| First example of a good or a poor social worker I have known
  (write a name in here) | Me as a pre-qualified worker | Second example of a good or a poor social worker I have known
  (write a name in here) |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| Me as a student social worker |                           | A social work supervisor or mentor I have or had
  (write a name in here) |
| 4                      | 5                           | 6                      |
Personal Constructs PIVOT Stage 1

Element Cards, Numbers Card and Question card

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Fourth example of a good or a poor social worker I have known (write a name in here)</th>
<th>The qualified social worker I want to be</th>
<th>Fifth example of a good or a poor social worker I have known (write a name in here)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>7</td>
<td>8</td>
<td>9</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Numbers Card

Use the following element number combinations:

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
1 4 7 2 5 8 3 6 9
1 5 9 3 5 7 2 6 1
4 5 8

Question Card

In terms of what is important to you in social work, which two of these are similar in some way but different from the third?

What do the two have in common?

And how, by contrast, is this other one different?