INTRODUCTION

CAREN - Carer Research and Knowledge Exchange Network’ and the rationale for its development

http://wels.open.ac.uk/research-project/caren/

a freely accessible knowledge exchange resource for all those across the globe who require any form of carer-related knowledge e.g. governments, carers, employers, policy makers, practitioners, researchers, NGOs and research funders around the world
PRESENTATION OUTLINE

- CONTEXT

- RECOGNITION OF THE NEED FOR CARER RESEARCH AND KNOWLEDGE EXCHANGE

- CAREN

- EXAMPLES OF CAREN’s ROLES

- FUTURE DEVELOPMENT

- QUESTIONS and SUGGESTIONS
CONTEXT

• now a wealth of national and international knowledge around the role and contribution of family carers BUT it is fragmented, disparate, lacks accessibility and utility

• this has significant implications e.g. in relation to supporting carers’ capacity to make informed decisions; achieving policy goals; maximising the value and impact of research
RECOGNITION OF THE NEED FOR CARER RESEARCH AND KNOWLEDGE EXCHANGE

- International Carers Research collaborative network (using JISCmail).

- International Journal of Care and Caring

- Review of national and international carer-related knowledge

“This journal is long overdue...[I] will make a major contribution to the field, given the people behind it, its global and multi-disciplinary orientation, and its commitment to critical engagement with scholarship and policy and practice.”

Mary Daly, University of Oxford

“Will bring a new level of scholarship and attention to issues facing sustaining our humanity for the future... Jean Watson, Watson Caring Science Institute, Boulder, Colorado

“A timely and significant scholarly journal in the hugely significant, social, political, legal and economic spheres of care provision with international coverage.”

Bettina Cass, University of New South Wales

“The IJCC is exciting and timely, providing an important international and interdisciplinary evidence base for improved care and support for carers.”

Marie Evidon, University of Southampton

“Essential reading for academics, policy makers and practitioners interested in the complexities and nuances of care and caring.”

Judith Phillips, University of Stirling

Carer research and knowledge

Utilising carer-related research and knowledge: a scoping review and information resource adapted existing knowledge exchange models transferred the items captured and coherently organised on Endnote during the review used same organisation system as the review i.e. 62 themes classified into four major categories:

- Impact of care
- Carer variables
- Type of care
- Support and carers

webinars, online forum, Facebook, twitter, blog and podcasts
EXAMPLES OF CAREN’s ROLES

- a reliable and independent database for carer research and knowledge
- translation of research and evidence into evidence-based improvements in the quality and cost-effectiveness of both health and social care services and practice with carers (researchers, policymakers and practitioners)
- a source of information about policy development and evidence for government departments and NG0s
- the provision of information and evidence for carers, service commissioners, NGOs, policymakers and practitioners to support cost-effectiveness in decision-making and service development
- the facilitation of informed exchanges in relation to consultations innovative practice (e.g. carers, NGOs and government departments)
- help researchers reduce duplication of effort, quickly acquire knowledge about existing research
- an ‘international noticeboard’ for promoting conferences and events
FUTURE DEVELOPMENT

- regular updating of resources
- extend knowledge exchange facility
- feedback and evaluation
- team to lead it (preferably international!)
- sponsorship
IN SUM……

- CAREN addresses a significant systemic deficit in the carers field
- step change in the way carer-related issues are captured, disseminated and addressed
- has the ongoing potential to improve the lives of the ever-increasing number of carers, by considerably enhancing the relationship between carer research and evidence and policy and practice
- it is a network whose time has come!
