Building a community of writers in a university

Take one university...

-  20 hours teaching per week
-  High number of 'second-career' academics
-  Focus on applied courses
-  Key priority: improved position in REF

...12 academics...

...one writing group

What is the role of a writing community in developing the writing practices of academics?

An ethnographic study: telling their stories

The end of a chapter

- Writing spaces need to be:
- About process before productivity
  - Both social and individual
  - Both visible and protected

Participants developed a more coherent sense of their wider academic identity and began to see writing as a legitimate and valuable activity.

The interplay between individual and institutional is key: the University needs to clearly articulate the nature and purpose of writing within the institution.
