DECODING THE AGES: TECHNOLOGY IN POLICING EUROPE

MISS GANIAT KAZEEM

CRITICAL INFORMATION STUDIES GROUP, SCHOOL OF COMPUTING AND COMMUNICATIONS, OPEN UNIVERSITY, ENGLAND UNITED KINGDOM
Traditional policing

- LAW & ORDER
- POLITICS
- POLICY
- LAWS

- Localised Record Keeping
- Low Tech
- Limited accountability
- High Political Influence On Policing
- Limited Legislation
Modern Policing

- Law & Order
- Politics
- Policy
- Laws
- Data Justice
- Ethics
- Funding
- Privacy
- Culture

- Value
- Veracity
- Data
- Volume
Important shifts in policing

LOCAL → REGIONAL → GLOBAL
Technology, innovation and policing
Modern Demands on policing
Modern Crimes

The Evolution of 5G

- 1G: Introduction of Analog Telecommunications (1979)
- 2G: Text Messaging (1991)
- 3G: Mobile and Wireless Internet Connection (1998)
- 4G: Cloud, IP and Truly Mobile Broadband (2008)
- 5G: Unlimited Data Capacity (2019)
Modern policing

- Crime Interception
- Crime Control
- Limiting Recidivism
- Crime Prediction
- Risk and Harm Reduction
- Crime Management
- Crime Identification
- Crime Monitoring
- Crime Investigation
- Cross Border Policing
New Digital narratives

Modern Policing

Knowledge Sharing

Innovation and Development

Cooperation

Collaboration

Academic Research

[Map of Europe]
Using research to support good policing policy

Active research
Continued research with objectivity

Academic scrutiny of new technology
Querying Technology

Social development
improve policing cooperation

Engaging citizens in the narrative
Inclusive development

Modernisation of legislation
Using research to drive modernisation of laws

Research to support the argument for Accountability
Thank you